

THEY BATTED VICTIOUSLY.

WELCH'S PITCHING GETS A WARM RECEPTION FROM THE BOSTONS,

And New York Dropped Lower into Third Place—Chicago, as Usual, Beats Pittsburgh—Brooklyn Defeats Philadelphia, with Kasee in the Box—Results of Other Games—The Aldermen Will Try to Force the New York Club to Shred the Bleachers.

Again is the community engrossed in gloom, by looking a score or two up. But Sunday's delivery yesterday the New Yorks would have scored over the heads of the Bostonians and got up within hailing distance of the Chicagoans. It usually happens that the earned or unearned run cannot be procured at times when most fervently desired, and the baseball craze is compelled to observe repose and forbearance until such time as the big, hot players get their catches on the elusive run that wins. Yesterday's events mean the purchase of large hats for the Chicagoans, and a good deal of jolliness in Boston, but the flag has not yet been won by either of the teams referred to. New York is still very much in it, and with a strong and steady pull will come to the front. It begins to look as though the last four teams in the race had found their positions.
